

RED DEER – Cervus elaphus

WHERE DO THEY LIVE?

UK RED DEER DISTRIBUTION

©The British Deer Society 2011

HOW BIG ARE THEY?

DID YOU KNOW?

Red deer:

- are native to the UK
- are our largest land mammal
- are named for their distinctive rusty red summer coats
- have spots when born which fade completely after 3 months

Young (calves) born mainly in June.

Red deer frequently herd together on winter feeding grounds. Sadly many die in severe weather, particularly in the Highlands.